

Propulse® Instruments

The Propulse® ear care instruments were developed in conjunction with leading ear care clinicians and are designed and manufactured specifically for ear care use.

They are high quality, high strength instruments which are slim line and easy to use.

Provided individually or as a complete kit at extremely competitive prices, the Propulse® Instrument range provides everything the clinician needs to practise safer ear care.